

The Story of Grace's Place & the Rino Stage

Nonni (Grace), the much-loved grandmother of Zachary and Francesca, brought music into the lives of everyone around her. Nonni's talent and passion are reflected in her grandchildren, Zach and Cessa, and, together with their parents, she encouraged them to explore their artistic dreams.

In honor of her love and the profound impact Nonni had on their lives, and her exceptional hospitality, Zach and Cessa opened Grace's Place & the Rino Stage, a café, sober bar, and performance venue designed to provide artists with a nurturing space to share their skills and passions with a supportive community.

Nonno Chris (Rino), Zach and Cessa's grandfather, was one of their most enthusiastic fans. He always beamed with pride as he watched his grandchildren perform and supported them throughout their artistic journeys. Every act, every brushstroke, and every note is celebrated on Rino's stage.

Grace's Place is a heartfelt remembrance of their Nonni and Nonno's love for the arts, whether demonstrated through music, stage performances, or artistic pieces scattered throughout, or when you're greeted with a smile and a warm welcome, reflecting their exceptional hospitality, celebrating the loving legacy they created.
